

(field notes) from an apocalypse

documentation of events, conversations and behaviors,
the researcher's reflections on them.

Objectivity vs. Subjectivity, who's to say?

field notes (from) an apocalypse

read the news.

political cultural

look out the window.

social environmental allow your surroundings to impact you.

don't?

field notes from (an) apocalypse

it has happened before,

it is happening now,

it will happen again.

is it happening to you?
does it matter if it's happening to you?
why or why not?

field notes from an (apocalypse)

the complete final destruction of the world, as described in the biblical book of Revelation.
the last book of the Christian bible.

accompanies the Second Coming of Christ and the Last Judgment.

the end of mortality, the beginning of eternity.

damnation or salvation, it's up to you!

an event involving destruction or damage on an awesome or catastrophic scale.

see (from).

Old English apocalipsis

via Old French and ecclesiastical Latin from Greek apokalupsis from apokaluptein 'uncover, reveal'

apo- 'un-' kaluptein 'to cover'.

Revelation

the ending begets the beginning begets the ending begets the beginning begets the ending begets the beginning begets... (ad infinitum).

ouroboros;

the serpent eating its own tail;

the natural eternal cycle of destruction and re-creation.

see (an).